

Dance of the Song of the Vajra in Venice

Date : March 11, 2019

Spring has arrived in Venice, Italy. We have also just celebrated Women's Day so the practitioners of Gyamtsholing gave Adriana Dal Borgo a beautiful little mimosa tree! The occasion was the in-depth course on the Dance of the Song of the Vajra that Adriana gave over the weekend of March 9th and 10th at the San Girolamo school gym, the traditional venue for the Gyamtsholing courses. There was a full mandala, pamo and pawo come from different places in Italy, the atmosphere was friendly and warm with the meeting of brothers and sisters that we don't often see, and at the same time concentrated, with practitioners attentive to understand Adriana's explanations. Two beautiful days of sharing and practice that were memorable.
