Nellie

The Sydney Dzogchen community is mourning the loss of Nellie Reeves who sadly passed away suddenly on January 26, 2016, Australia Day. Nellie spent most of her life in the Dzogchen Community from a young age; with her mother Jacqui and sister Jess, in the early days at Namgyalgar South, and as a long time member of the Sydney Dzogchen Community. She was a gorgeous young woman, a Yantra Yoga practitioner, and always a bright and lively presence. Please remember Nellie in your practice over the coming weeks.
