Dear Dzogchen Community friends,

The Mirror has been a primary means of inter Community communication since its birth in March 1990. On several occasions, Chögyal Namkhai Norbu expressed his support for the newspaper.

“The Mirror must be a bridge for communicating with all the Dzogchen Communities. It is really very important to strengthen the function of The Mirror. I think it’s very important that everyone communicates and collaborates.”

December 1990, Tashigar South, Issue 7

The Mirror is financed by the IDC covering the costs of two part-time editors, a website manager, a layout artist, and printing costs. A number of people around the globe work in karma yoga translating and giving technical support for foreign language websites.

Due to today’s challenges in covering these costs, we really need your financial support to continue publishing The Mirror in all its forms. You are our Community, our family. Please help us maintain this essential means of communication within Chögyal Namkhai Norbu’s International Dzogchen Community and for the future.

With love,
The Mirror Editorial Team and International Gakyil
