

Merigar West's New Tourism Project - Great Expectation

Date : May 24, 2018

Have you ever dreamed of exploring places where the Great Masters have lived and practiced? Have you always been curious to visit the region of Tibet and Sichuan? Would you like to have a real life experience with local people?

Great-Expectation Travel Service and the Dzogchen Community of Merigar West are launching their first tourism initiative! Two tailor-made trips carefully designed to get the most out of enjoyment, comfort and quality.

You can view the day by day program of the trip, photos of the places that will be visited, information on the equipment and services made available and interesting facts on the stages of the itinerary in the links below.
