OUR AUSPICIOUS GIFT: THE NEW WEBSITE KHAITA.ORG

editorial

For many countries, the month of January is associated with the colour of snow, whitewashed landscapes and the muffled silence of falling snow. Khawa bap, 'The snow has fallen', is one of the first songs in the collection 'Message from Tibet'. (MfT 2.01). Let's discover the profound meaning and teaching it speaks of and the meaning of the metaphor of footprints in the snow, through Chögyal Namkhai Norbu's commentary. Check out the rich schedule of online appointments offered by our instructors! There are meetings to sing and dance together but also lessons to learn, join us! And...our New Year present: discover the new webpage: <https://khaita.org/>
