

Translations of Rinpoche's Recorded Teachings on 25 Spaces

Date : December 29, 2020

25 Spaces of Samantabhadra from Namgyalgar South, April 2012

Dear members of the Dzogchen Community,

We are happy to announce that we added Spanish and Russian translation files for the retreat we are webcasting now.

Translations are available by this link.

If someone has translation files to other languages, please contact red@dzogchen.net, so we can collaborate to upload them. Thank you!

Here is the link to watch the Teaching record.

Soon we will also add translations for that Teaching on the same page. We will announce it.

“For this retreat teaching will be the 25 Spaces of Samantabhadra. You know that it is the same family as the Song of the Vajra. The Song of the Vajra is the most important teaching in Dzogchen Teaching... The meaning and how we learn 25 Spaces of Samantabhadra is very similar to the Song of the Vajra...”
