

Vacancy at ASIA

Date : June 17, 2014

ASIA is looking for a person for the following position on its staff:

Position: Web marketing, communications and social media manager

Location: ROME

Availability: IMMEDIATE

This position involves carrying out social media management, web communication development, design and development of fundraising and long distance support campaigns, and runs the press office. The role coordinates the task of gathering news from projects.

It is responsible for the design and implementation of information and promotional material for ASIA.

Works in close liaison with all sectors of the association.

Requirements:

- sharing the values and mission of ASIA;
- work experience in the field of Communication and Web Marketing, preferably gained within an NGO;
- excellent skills in planning organization;
- excellent interpersonal skills;
- creativity;
- excellent knowledge of computer tools and good knowledge of graphics programs Indesign, Illustrator, Photoshop; basic knowledge of HTML;
- good knowledge of the tools of storytelling;
- excellent knowledge of the English language both written and oral;
- preferably knowledge of the culture and history of the countries where ASIA works.

Placement: project contract. Wage: ranging between 1,000 and 1,200 euro net according to experience.

Resumes can be sent to the following address l.fidanzia@asia-onlus.org.

