

My Reincarnation in Bulgaria

Date : February 20, 2018

Dear Melong Editors,

This is to inform you that we made a showing of My Reincarnation on February 15, 2018, in the town where I live, Veliko Tarnovo, Bulgaria.

The streaming took place in the only local cultural club for independent cultural events, next to one of the three university campuses in the town.

It went very well in a cozy, friendly, and kind of intimate atmosphere. The club was a full audience consisting predominantly of young people – students and a few locals. One day before a meeting with a Buddhist monk taking place there; so the two events, one after the other, marked the start of the New Tibetan Year of the Earth Dog in a town where I thought no-one has ever spoken about Tibet – but surprisingly it was not exactly so!

There is not a group of practitioners here yet, but I met people who apparently were also doing our practices.

So, I am writing you as I thought I should inform someone else apart from the group in Sofia – not that I want it announced anywhere.

Kind regards, enjoy an auspicious, healthy and happy Year for All, Long life to the Master!
